

Kemptville Players Inc.

November, 2017.

Sadie Flynn was a big success! The return of dinner theatre seems to be a plus. Publicity was well done as well as a concentrated presence at Independent Grocer. On line tickets were popular! We will try it again.

Auditions for 'An Inspector Calls' – Dec. 3 – 2:00

Dec. 6 – 7:00 p.m. both at IOOF Hall

This is a drama and will be performed in May – 10 – 13. Let us know where you can help.

Retractable banner – Paul ordered this and it certainly adds a professional look to our presence – it will be well used.

Bound by Stardust – Steve Wendt approached the executive with a proposal for this independent initiative to be supported by KPI. He has hand-picked his cast and crew due to the uncertainty of dates and places for presentation. It will not be in conflict with KPI plays and is a show that will go on the road – somewhere stay tuned!!

Lafferty's Wake – Monica has proposed the presentation of this musical play over 2 weekends in November 2018, with no Thursday performance and 2 dinner theatres.

KPIK (kids!) – Mary-Anne Leang is going to direct a short children's play at the Municipal Centre on January 20 – one afternoon show. She is in the process of auditioning children now. It is a play she wrote and has presented in the past.

Pop up Display – in keeping with our 50-year celebration, Sharon Sangster is going to do a KPI display at the library. No details yet.

General Meeting and Christmas party - postponed to January 13.

A brief meeting at 4:00 followed by supper and silly Santa gift exchange. More to follow!!

Lee