Your help is urgently required in the following areas:

We need people to help put flyers up around town in the various stores.

During the 4 performances:

We still need someone to do the hand props for this show.

2 people are required at each performance to sell 50/50 tickets

2 people are required to take play tickets and hand out programs

1 person required to help sell refreshments

I already have one couple for one night to sell 50/50 tickets. That is all.

Please reply back to me regarding when you are available and for what duty. That would be much appreciated.

- Does anyone know when Barb Stiles is coming back, or have a recent e-mail for her? The last e-mail I have, bounced just a couple of weeks ago....That is the tbstiles one I have been trying....

The following is a message from our President:

The level of response from members of our group is at an extremely low level and is very disappointing.

We have increasingly low attendance at meetings and poor to no response for help at plays.

There is little enthusiasm from the membership to participate in the community.

It appears that we need to seriously consider whether this group is able to continue to function.

Our annual general meeting in June will focus on our situation. We continue to try to run this group with an incomplete executive that has had little to no turnover for many years.

We need active participation to flourish.
