

Kemptville Players Inc

Cue Sheet May 2014

- Our spring play, the Cemetery Club by Ivan Menchell, is over. Doris will be played by Cathie Raina, Ida by Arlene Watson, Lucille by Florence Moore, Mildred by Ellen Fawcett and the character of Sam was played by Jim Lamb. For those who missed it, the play was performed at the Municipal Centre May 1, 2 and 3rd and 4th. We were reviewed favourably by the North Grenville Times, and the feedback from theatre goers was very favourable as well. Congratulations to everyone involved!
- Will all actors who have not returned their copy of the play "Cemetery Club" either drop it off at Monica Cleland's house at 120 Parliament Street, (you can leave it in the wooden mailbox on the front step - just leave a note so that I know who left what script), or bring it to the Annual General Meeting? Read on for details of that...
- Sustainability Fair on April 27th - our table did not elicit any newcomers - despite Steve Wendt's best efforts... We did, however, sell some tickets to our play, so the day was not lost... Thanks very much to Steve and Theresa McCaig who worked the table from 11-1 and to Richard Pickard who was there from 1-3, and of course, our fearless leader, Lee Gaw who was there as well!
- Annual General Meeting Time! June 25th, 7:30 p.m. at the IOOF Hall. Bring nibbles and your own cold drinks to munch during the meeting. Please come and be prepared to participate, and/or run for office!
