Mr. Pim Passes By

The North Grenville Community Theatre is pleased to offer the delightful classic comedy, Mr. Pim Passes By, as our main show for Spring, 2025. This play by the author of Winnie the Pooh explores the intricacies of household life, young romance, the tending of pigs, and the inconvenience of accidental bigamy. Mr. Pim himself is an intriguing fellow – his visits are always interesting and they make us wonder – can we trust the newspapers at all? This is A. A. Milne's best-known play and it is full of valuable lessons for us today.

The Main Show will be in the Urbandale Arts Centre, in Kemptville, from May 7 through May 11, but not on May 8. Tickets are $25 and they are available online at NGCT.CA or in-person at B&H Community Grocer in Kemptville. We often have tickets available at the door.

We are offering a Mother's Day Brunch at 11AM on Sunday May 11 at the same theatre in Kemptville, for an additional $25 per person. Our brunches are extremely popular! This will be catered by our friends at Leatherworks. Be sure to buy your tickets early if you plan to attend the brunch. We need to know who is coming.

This year we are also offering a special BUDGET VERSION of the play, at the Marlborough Community Recreation Association Hall in Pierce's Corners. Profits from this special show will be dedicated to the MCRA in support of the rehearsal space they provide for our work. If you can not attend one of our main shows, we hope you will come to the trimmed-down version. It will have limited technical support, limited set, and limited parking, but it will be an intimate experience and lots of fun. People should come to both shows for a comparison! Call 613-489-3094 for tickets to the budget version which will be available at the special discounted price of $15. Or take your chances and buy at the door – if there are any tickets left.

- Budget Version Show May 8 at 7:30 PM at the MCRA Hall Pierce's Corners.
