Special Newsletter June 2025

This special newsletter is the first in a new effort by NGCT to re-establish contact with our theatre-going public. We have never before attempted emailing to such a large number of our contacts. To send out this newsletter we assembled a list of email addresses, including people who have purchased our tickets, people we have had correspondence with, and we even pasted in addresses gleaned from our President's personal friends. Please help us build our group of contacts by asking your own folks to check in at NGCT.CA and fill in the link to Stay in Touch. Meanwhile, don't miss this:

Year	Show	Notes
2022	Ripcord	We prepared this show twice – the first was ruined by Covid and we had to start over.
2022	Romance on the Road	A Marriage Proposal and How He Lied to Her Husband.
2022	Shirley Valentine	A one-actor hit!
2022	Desperate Farm Wives	At the International Plowing Match. This locally-written play was loved by all.
2023	Romance on the Road	Many Faces of Love. Some of the faces were a bit naughty.
2023	The Admirable Crichton	Sir J.M. Barrie's greatest work – not counting Peter Pan.
2023	Hobson's Choice	NGCT was excited to perform this at Parish Hall.
2023	A killing in Kemptville	In our ever-popular murder mystery series.
2023	Death of Me	Our entry in the EODL one-act play festival that we hosted.
2024	Le Malade Imaginaire	NGCT's workshop in French language theatre.
2024	Bloody Murder	As usual, the NGCT set was outrageously beautiful.
2024	Romance on the Road	NGCT helps non-profits fund-raise funds by staging these travelling plays.
2024	Al Capone Murder Mystery	In our increasingly-popular murder mystery series.
2024	Trapper	Our entry in the EODL festival in Perth.
2024	Our Town	Perhaps the most popular 20 th century play there is. Our version was the best.
2025	A Killing in Kemptville	In our astoundingly-popular murder mystery series.
2025	Rock 'n Rolly at the Masons'	In our quite popular murder mystery series.
2025	Mr. Pim Passes By	The classic play by A.A. Milne. Winnie the Pooh came later.
2025	Romance on the Road	NGCT helps non-profits fund-raise by staging entertainment for the hosting group. Since we started these after Covid, area non-profits have raised thousands of dollars and had fun at the same time.

We would like to keep all of our contacts informed about upcoming shows. However, even though we use a sophisticated mailing system, some of our messages get put into people's Spam Folders. You can help be sure you get our mail by adding info@ngct.ca to your address book.
